Zandy Hartig loves this New York City indoor play place: "If I am really going to show my kids a good time and it's a yucky day outside, I take them to...Apple Seeds," she says.

Indoor Activities for Kids

Our moms on their favorite indoor playgrounds around the world—from New York's Apple Seeds to Madrid's Baby Deli to Shanghai's Club Baby.

Playing in the park is fun. But sometimes indoor activities for kids are a must—whether it's because the weather doesn't permit frolicking outdoor fun or because mom just really needs a break. That's why indoor playgrounds and play places are a godsend for so many moms: Offering classes as well as free-range areas filled with safe playground equipment, these centers are always a source of relief for you and entertainment for the little ones. So we collected our moms' trusted sources of indoor activities for kids. Flip through the slideshow to find a play place near you! —Hally Wolhandler
